New Albany Water Works Case in District Court—Judge Baker Sits in Chambers.

The jury found for the defendant in the damage suit of Michael J. Cruise, a Team Democrat of New York, against the West Baden Hotel Company, in the Federal Court, yesterday. Seaman, of the United States District Court, at Milwaukee, dismissed the application of the Indianapolis Northern Traction Company in the instrument of appropriation for a right of way through land owned by the American Streetcar Company at Noblesville, yesterday. Judge Seaman heard the trial of the Equitable Trust Company of Pittsburgh, against the Old Wayne Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Indianapolis, yesterday, in the Federal Court. ## BAN ON SUNDAY STORES.

Mayor Bookwalter Issues Order at Request of Clerks.

Mayor Bookwalter has directed the police to stop Sunday stores. His direction followed a call from a committee from the Protective Association of Retail Clerks, composed of George Rubens, Gus Simonsen and Bryson Martin. The committee represented that many retail stores were being kept open on Sunday and that a large number of them were on South Illinois street. If the stores are kept open on Sunday the police will be required to make the Sabbath desecration law.

HOTEL LOBBY GLEANINGS

JOHN L. WHITEHEAD, OF NEWARK, N. J., VISITS THE CITY.

He Thinks Indianapolis Is a Great Business Center—Stories from the Local Hotels.

"Indianapolis is a better city than the people who live in it realize," said John L. Whitehead, head of the Whitehead-Hoag Company, of Newark, N. J., who was in the city yesterday visiting Eli A. Hirschfeld, manager of the Indiana and Ohio business of the company. "I have a great admiration for your beautiful city and for the up-to-date character of its business men. They have push, energy and business intelligence. They are progressive. In fact, Indianapolis is so promising that our company is to undertake a large development of its business here."

Mr. Whitehead was on his way home from a Western trip. He said the character and quantity of business his company did here was one of the indications of the activity of the business element. The Whitehead-Hoag Company deals exclusively in advertising novelties, badges, buttons and self-adhesive novelties. Its business extends all over the country. Mr. Whitehead is the senior member of the company in both years and position, but he is still a very young man. He and his associates are all young men, who developed the business in the last decade. While Mr. Whitehead did not say so, it is probable that if the company decides to erect a Western factory Indianapolis will be among the most available sites considered.

LOUIS REIBOLD IN THE CITY.
Former Bates Landlord Impressed by the New Clapp.

Louis Reibold, who was for fifteen years proprietor of the Bates House, was a guest yesterday in the new hotel that graces the site of the old Bates. Mr. Reibold has just returned from a six years' tour abroad, coming here direct from Mexico, where he has been for the past six months.

"The Clapp certainly a magnificent hotel," said Mr. Reibold, in answer to a request for his opinion. "It is a credit to Indianapolis, and it is just what the city has needed and is just what I have not expected to see here. I do not see where it could be improved upon, as it is modern in every respect. I came for a very brief visit, wishing to see my mother's grave, in Crown Hill, and I shall leave this evening for Dayton."

Mr. Reibold has extensive business interests in Dayton, but he said he had formulated no definite plans for the future, and did not know whether he would make Dayton his permanent home.

Mr. Reibold came abroad immediately after selling the Bates House to Henry W. Lawrence, six years ago, and this was his first visit to Indianapolis since that time. During his travels he visited all parts of Europe and Asia, and spent some time in Egypt and South America. One of his most interesting trips, he said, was a journey through Siberia. While Mr. Reibold was in Cairo, Egypt, he was married, his wife dying there a few months later.

M. D. STULTS, OF HUNTINGTON.

He Is an Admirer of Beveridge and Wants to See Him Re-Elected.

Marion D. Stults, of Huntington, who was in the city to attend the state convention of funeral directors, indicated yesterday that he would be a candidate for election to the State Legislature. He was a member of the House during the last session of the General Assembly.

Mr. Stults is a warm admirer of Senator Beveridge and he predicts the senator's re-election without opposition. "There is some little talk of opposition to Senator Beveridge," he said, "but I do not believe it will amount to anything. I doubt if there is a candidate against him. The Republicans of Huntington county are practically unanimous in their support of Beveridge's return to the Senate, and I should be glad to have an opportunity to cast a vote for him in 1905."

CHAIRMAN GOODRICH'S VISIT.

While in the City He Talks with Prominent Republicans.

James P. Goodrich, of Winchester, chairman of the Republican state committee, was in the city yesterday and last evening he had conferences with a number of Republican leaders and state officials.

"There's nothing new, so far as I know," he said, with a smile, when asked if his activity betokened any political "doings."

"I merely ran down here to see a man or two on some business matters," Mr. Goodrich declined to talk of the reorganization of the state committee is on.

Unusual Murder Trial.

Charles De Vaut, of Columbia City, who was roll clerk in the House during the recent session of the State Legislature, is in the city to look after legal business. "This is the first time I have been here since the Legislature adjourned," he said last evening at the Denison. "I have been unusually busy and have had a murder trial on hand that has taken a good deal of my time. It was rather an unusual case, by the way. A young fellow went to call on a girl and her father threw him out of the house, whereupon the fellow drew a revolver and shot at the old man's feet. His arm was stuck in the door, and he never got out. The fellow, severing an artery just above the heart, the young fellow received a wound of the chest and died. The case was tried for two to twenty-one years."

Worth Money to Farmers.

"This rain to-day and to-night has been a great thing for the farmers of Indiana and Ohio," said James B. Hill, of Pittsburgh, general freight agent of the Southwestern system of the Pennsylvania, at the Columbia Club last night. "I came in from Columbus this evening and it was raining heavily all along the line. The farmers of much of this territory have been unable to get their corn planted, owing to the continued dry weather, and the rain to-day in have not been doing very well, but this rain will put things right. It is worth thousands of dollars to the farmers."

Warden Reid in the City.

James D. Reid, warden of the State Prison at Michigan City, was in Indianapolis yesterday calling on friends in the State house.

"I wish to remark," said Mr. Reid, "and my opinion is that the Indianapolis Journal is getting out a rattling good paper. I have always been partial to the Journal, but nevertheless I believe the paper is showing constant improvement in every particular."

Three Baby Elephants.

Three baby elephants play an important part in the Gentry Brothers' dog and pony shows, which come to Indianapolis next Monday for a week's engagement. There is much to wonder at and admire in their marvelous feats of pyramiding, building, dancing, playing upon musical instruments and accomplishing difficult equilibristic and acrobatic acts. At one time during the performance the arena is converted into an elephant picnic ground, the elephants partaking of a lunch and furnishing all sorts of fun and amusement.

The first performance will be given Monday afternoon at Capitol avenue and Sixteenth street.

WILL GET HEARTY WELCOME.

Indianapolis Will Extend Hospitality to Big T. P. A. Convention.

Members of the Travelers' Protective Association are laying in large supplies of white, gold and green decorations. This is in preparation for the national T. P. A. convention which will meet here June 8. Not only are they preparing to decorate their homes, but they are receiving the most generous responses from the merchants of the city in their efforts to procure great decorations in the business districts. The T. P. A. local committee has planned arrangements to make Indianapolis the best-decorated city the convention ever visited. The committee has secured such a welcome from the merchants, both wholesale and retail, that an abundance of material has been procured and will be sold at the Commercial Travelers' Club, near the Grand Hotel. This includes bouquets, streamers, and other printed decorations bearing the T. P. A. insignia.

Merchants are interested in the convention because of its intrinsic value as a means of advertising Indianapolis. The delegates and visitors will include thousands of men who travel all over the country and who travel constantly. For this reason they want polished, courteous and efficient men on the visitors and give them every evidence that the hospitality and welcome of the city is of proper magnitude.

WILL BUILD NEW CHURCH

FIRST CHRISTIAN CONGREGATION ANNOUNCES PLANS.

Building Will Be Erected at Martindale Avenue and Seventeenth Street—Ministerial Institute.

A new Christian church will soon be erected at the corner of Martindale avenue and Seventeenth street. The cost will be about $3,000 and the structure will be modern in every detail. The lot is five and one-half by 140 feet. The building is to be put up by the members of the First Christian Church, also known as the East Seventeenth-street Christian Church, of which the Rev. J. F. Morris is pastor. Work will likely be begun on the church this summer.

The building committee of the State Conference of Christian Churches, composed of Rev. L. W. Hercules, of Center, Rev. M. M. Wiles, of Kirkland, Alfred Godly, of Palestine, Ill.; Rev. J. F. Morris, of Indianapolis; Rev. G. D. Foster, of Kempton; Rev. H. B. Whitcomb, of Indianapolis; and Rev. M. C. Teter, of Goldsmith, will meet next week to take official action on the matter, but the preliminary arrangements have been made and the plans have been approved. All that is necessary is the sanction of the committee, which has been assured.

The new church will be a memorial church, to be built by the State Conference, which intends erecting houses of worship all over the State. This will be the second, the other being at Muncie. The pastor of the Muncie church is the Rev. J. F. Burnett. This Christian Church is not of the sect called "Campbellites," although the two are very often confused. The congregation was devoted to the sect, while bearing the title of Christian, is altogether a different sect from that termed "Disciples."

The Christian Church was organized about 1793 and sprang from the Methodist Episcopal Church on account of a rupture as to government. The Rev. J. O'Kelley was one of the founders, and the new sect was first seen most prominently in North Carolina. An invitation was extended to all Christians, irrespective of sect, and the church is entirely congregational, allowing individual interpretation of the Bible. The church is not very strong in the United States, but it has a large following in other parts of the world.

MAY DAY AT ACTON.

It Is Probable That All the Cottages Will Be Occupied.

The big bell in the tabernacle at the Acton Park camp meeting ground rang for the first time this year yesterday, when it announced a sort of town meeting of the cottages. About two hundred people attended the annual May day celebration, which is the preliminary gathering to the opening of the summer session. The meetings will begin July 22. Dinner was served at the hotel by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Methodist Church, who will have charge of the hotel during the camp. The park is in fine condition, and the managers hope to have a most successful season. Cottages are being rented at good rates, and it has been practically assured that the entire 118 will be occupied.

The morning was devoted to informal discussion, and the regular meeting was called to order by President J. W. Dashiell at 2 o'clock. Reports from the secretary showed the association to be in a flourishing condition, and that, although last year was looked upon as the worst, it was still "an off season," no money was lost. An improvement over previous years will be the transportation to and from the park. Arrangements have also been completed with the Shelbyville Traction Company by which tickets will be sold to all cottagers for 15 cents one way. The Big Four Railroad will also give a rate.

TRON'S PETITION OVERRULED.

Perpetual Injunction Applying to Fair Bank Must Stand.

William Tron and the Terre Haute Brewing Company continue to renege on the ruling secured against them by Zimri C. Lewis. The Appellate Court issued a perpetual injunction forbidding the sale of liquor outside the lower room of a building at Fair Bank, and Tron and the company asked for a rehearing of the case. Yesterday the court refused to grant the petition. The Appellate Court held yesterday that the city of Valparaiso has no right to sell water works, and that the city officials have no right to dispose of any property or of any rights held by the city.

Woman Is in Bad Condition.

Mrs. E. K. Young, who is an inmate of the City Hospital, afflicted with paralysis of the lower limbs, is almost on the verge of death as the result of the death of her husband several days ago. She cries constantly, and it is feared that she will not live, as her grief is almost too strong for her frail constitution to withstand. She has been at the hospital for several months and with her are her two babies, one four-weeks old and the other one month old. In spite of her affliction, she was always cheerful and never complained of her misfortune. Her husband was killed by a railroad train at Ramona, Ind., last Friday, and since being informed of her misfortune her condition has become so alarming that it is feared she will die of a broken heart.

McCULLOUGH SEES KEACH

SATISFIED, HE THEN ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR MAYOR.

Chairman Tells Him Democratic Machine Will Be No Candidate's Automobile—Local Political Gossip.

James E. McCullough has formally announced his candidacy for mayor on the Democratic ticket. Mr. McCullough has been expected to say "yes" for several days, but he has been coy or cautious. His mind was made up yesterday, after a visit to Chairman Keach. He said he went to see Mr. Keach to thoroughly understand his attitude, as chairman, toward candidates for nomination. He says Mr. Keach satisfied him that he would not permit the Democratic organization to become any candidate's machine, and as this was the last point of consideration, he made a formal announcement that he would seek the nomination.

Mr. McCullough has lived in Indianapolis since 1887 and has been a representative in the Legislature from this county. For several years he was in law partnership with Henry N. Spain. Mr. McCullough is well known as a lawyer and public speaker, and he was on the committee that prepared the Indianapolis city charter. He has also been interested in legislation for primary election reform.

At the outset of the Keach movement McCullough's name was connected with the majority contest. Holtzman was really believed to be Keach's man until Keach declared at a public meeting that if Holtzman should be elected he would like to see him have to "win his spurs before he could wear them." The idea has not visibly dimmed that Keach would like to see Holtzman nominated. Mr. Holtzman has been receiving numerous advisers, and they unanimously urge him to become a candidate.

In the meantime Joseph E. Bell maintains silence as to whether he will be a candidate or whether he has ever been one. Mr. Bell seems to be taking ample time to judge the character of the field before he makes up his mind. Friends of other candidates are speaking of him as an ideal city attorney, and he is being urged by a number of Kern and Leon O. Bailey.

Councilman Candidates.

Several more Republican candidates for Council have filed their notices of candidacy with Chairman Logsdon, Wiley Brown, of the First ward; J. H. Murray, of the Fifth ward; Guy D. Rock, of the Seventh ward; Ferd C. Smock, of the Eighth ward; and L. C. Galloway, of the Ninth ward, certified yesterday. Harlan W. Craft, connected with the Wocher real-estate agency, is being urged as a candidate in the Second ward.

W. A. Moore Withdraws.

W. A. Moore, who was nominated for councilman at large by the Prohibitionists last Monday night, has withdrawn from the ticket. Mr. Moore is vice president of the H. T. Conde Implement Company.

George W. June a Candidate.

George W. June has announced his intention of being a Republican candidate for councilman in the Seventh ward.

CHICAGO HEALTH BOARD.

Its Methods Will Be Investigated by Physio-Medical Doctors.

The Physio-Medical physicians and surgeons closed their convention here yesterday afternoon, after electing officers and choosing Columbus, O., as the next meeting place. There was no contest in the election.

President A. E. Gammage, of Chicago, was re-elected by unanimous vote. Dr. J. C. Morrison, of Anderson, who was recently appointed to fill an unexpired term as secretary, was elected to that position. Dr. J. W. Shockey, of Columbus, O., was elected vice president. Dr. J. C. Morrison, of Anderson, who was recently appointed to fill an unexpired term as secretary, was elected to that position. Dr. J. W. Shockey, of Columbus, O., was elected vice president.

The committee on the president's annual address, recommending radical suggestions of the president be concurred in. This report was adopted, but action on the report was deferred until the next session. President Gammage recommended that the association establish a national laboratory for the study of the germ theory of disease, and for the investigation of the germ theory of disease. He favors the appropriation of $10,000 with which to begin this work, and thinks that the laboratory should be located in Indianapolis or Columbus. He also advocates the establishment of a bureau of statistics and the compilation of a directory of patients treated by the Physio-Medical school of medicine, and the appointment of a historian to prepare and print a full history of the Physio-Medical school of practice.

BUTLER DIRECTORS.

Several Matters Affecting the College Are Decided Upon.

At a meeting of the directors of Butler College yesterday at the Columbia Club plans were discussed in regard to the advisability of changing the present preparatory system. Instead of a preparatory department it was suggested that they furnish only the preparatory instruction necessary to enable freshmen to make up their deficient work. The directors decided to adopt this suggestion and to concentrate their energy in the development of other lines of college work. Final action as to the pedagogical department was referred to a later meeting.
